2nd win of career

Hawks pull plug on Pass

Even coach Ezell Lee can't believe it. After winning only one game, and that against a weak Kern's School of Pass Christian, in three years of conference competition, North Central's Hawks unceremoniously pulled the plug on a Pass Christian squad 58-7 Friday night at the Hawk Stadium.

The Hawks posted an astounding total of 633 yards gained, 423 rushing and 210 passing. The Pass Pirates are still muttering about the Hancock County spirit that seemed to possess the soaring Hawks.

"Those guys were really high," said team publicity man Clinton Necaise, of North Central. Coach Lee is said to be still having trouble getting his mouth shut and his eyes closed.

Leading the rushing attack were halfback Kenny Randall who hit eight times for 118 yards; halfback Paul Cuevas, 12 times for 114; quarterback Eddie Peterson seven times for 99; and fullback Berlin Ladner 10 times for 92.

Leading the passing parade was Peterson with nine completions out of 20 attempts for 145 yards. Receivers were Berlin and Wendall Ladner.

Randall got four touchdowns, Wendall Ladner two, Peterson, Paul Cuevas and Berlin Ladner, one each. Cuevas and Peterson each got two extra points and Calvin Willard one.

Paula Hariel Hawk queen for homecoming

Paula Fay Hariel was selected homecoming queen at Hancock North Central School, it was announced yesterday. Keith Shaw will escort her on the football field Friday evening for homecoming ceremonies.

School bus hit at Nicholson, Trail

Nicholson Avenue and Old Spanish Trail was the scene of another accident Tuesday morning when a Volkswagen collided with a county school bus. No one was injured and damage to each vehicle was estimated at $50.

The intersection has been the scene of numerous accidents, most recent being Oct. 13 when two youths were hospitalized.

Deputy Sheriff Donald Marquar said driver of the Volkswagen was Morris A. Paul, Gulfport. He was charged with reckless driving and fined $19 by JP Nedding and fined $19 by JP Nedding and fined $19 by JP Nedding.

Marquar said Mrs. Paxton told him Paxton was due to return from fishing at 9 a.m., but did not (Cont. on Page 6.)

ers. He allegedly failed to stop before crossing OST.

Driver of the school bus, filled to capacity with Negro children, was Matthew Williams. The bus was headed east.

A search for a missing fisherman, identified only as a Mr. Paxton, was in the process of being organized by the sheriff's department Tuesday when the missing man returned home safely. He reported his boat had beached on a reef in the Jordan River vicinity and had to wait for high tide.

Marquar said Mrs. Paxton told him Paxton was due to return from fishing at 9 a.m., but did not (Cont. on Page 6.)

first announcement was made of the selection of the 13,500-acre tract in Hancock County with the adjoining 141,000 acres of buffer zone for static tests of rockets to put an American on the moon in this decade.

While acquisition of the land has occupied most of the time since then, actual construction got under way in April and on Monday contractor personnel on the site totaled 505.

Meanwhile announcement is made of a contract between the Corps and Mississippi Power Co. for $268,520 to be paid by the government for relocation of certain power lines of MPC within the test site. An estimated eight to 10 miles of line will be moved, altered or removed under the agreement.

Say remedy exists

Appeal redist. ruling

The State Supreme Court Monday turned down a citizens' appeal seeking adequate representation for Beat 5 by forcing the board of supervisors to redistrict Hancock County and in effect told the complainants to seek relief by petition to the board signed by 25 per cent of the electorate, setting out means and bounds.

The decision, written by Justice Taylor McElroy of Oxford, held that the complainants have an "adequate remedy" from discrimination by lack of representation, which the supervisors have acknowledged in essence, under existing state laws. He cited Section 170 of the Mississippi Constitution and Section 2870 of the state code.

Notice of appeal from the top state court decision to the Supreme Court of the United States was filed Wednesday by Upton Sisson, Gulfport attorney, in behalf of the plaintiffs. At the same time the state court was asked to stay enforcement of its judgment insofar as certification of the election of supervisors as a result of the coming Nov. 5 elections is concerned.

The original complainants—Powell Glass, Jr., Dr. A. K. Martineich, Jr., and Wilbert L. Argus—had asked Chancellor William C. Hewes last February to require the county election commission to conduct county elections on an at-large basis until the supervisors equitably redistricted the county.

Hewes at that time sustained a demurrer by J. Norton Haas, appointed a few weeks earlier to the election commission, and dismissed the action on grounds the complainants had not used the proper remedy for redistricting. There is provision for calling an election if 25 per cent of the (Cont. on Page 6.)

Washington confab set on Bay aid

A conference is scheduled at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Washington, D. C., between officials of Bay St. Louis, Mississippi's two U.S. Senators and 5th District Rep. William M. Mayor John A. Scaffie and City Commissioner of Utilities J. Cyrt Glover will attend the session arranged last week with spokesmen for the Home and Housing Finance Administration, Community Facilities Administration and the Accelerated Public Works Program.

The mayor already has gone North and Glover expects to leave Monday for the confab. "We want to find out something because we can't get a yes or no out of any (Cont. on Page 6.)

North County News

By JOHN NECAISE

In Kiln recently visiting Mr. and Mrs. Michael Necaie were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ladner of Bay St. Louis, Mr. Ladner owns L. and N. Furniture there and is the Westinghouse dealer.

Mr. and Mrs. Camille Curet of Kiln and Mrs. C. E. Cuevas of Fenton ventured out to Ship Island on the excursion boat Southland, owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hill, formerly of Kiln, and Richard and Jeannie Hill, also former residents of Kiln. Jeannie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curet.

The Future Farmers of America HNC chapter, held its first meeting of the 63-64 season last week to elect officers. They are Berlin Ladner, president; Clinton Necaie, vice president; Ostey Lee, secretary; Keith Shaw, treasurer; Elroy Necaie, sentinel; D. J. Martin, Vocational Agriculture teacher, is sponsor.

In the time that elapsed since I last wrote North County News, Hancock North Central has played two ball games. First was the clash of clashes with Harrison Central Red Rebels. The outcome was 14-13, Rebels' favor. With a couple of the Varsity out with injuries, etc., the other boys went in and played like heck. The last couple of minutes of that game my heart almost stopped. Judging from the reaction of a huge crowd the feeling was generally mutual. With the new stadium completed the Hawks faced the Pass High Pirates last Friday night in a game that I can only call a slaughter of slaughters. Berlin Ladner who had been recovering from a badly injured knee went back into action after being out for a couple of weeks. The game at first seemed to be pretty slow and then all of a sudden as if the Hawks had been fed some "go" juice the boys started plovng. When they finally stopped they had racked up a 58 to 7 score over the Pirates. The words go—determination—drive that coach Ezell Lee is famous for certainly were put into practice.

The Beta Club, meeting last week, voted for weekly dues. New members were installed this week in an assembly program. President Ann Lee opened with recognition of officers: Norman Ferguson vice president; Edna Moran, secretary; Vivian Baker, treasurer; and John Necaie, reporter. New members installed are Clinton Necaie, Brenda Lee, Adron Pouncey, Gwen Favre, Bonnie Cuevas, Arlis Lee, Paullette Hall, John E. Moore, Thomas Dobbs, Sandra Bennett and Phillip Shaw.

The CYO, of Annunciation Parish under the adult supervision of Mrs. Effie Mazarakis of Kiln and Mrs. Robert Hudson of Necaie Crossing and Spiritual coordinator, Rev. Kenneth Brown, M.S.S.T. held its first meeting since the opening of school. It was voted to have all meetings at White Cypress Youth Center, instead of Kiln Youth Center. Main reason given by those who wanted to move was that for three years the group has met at Kiln. It is hoped more of teenagers in the Parish will attend every Monday at 7:30 p.m. Meetings will not last long unless there is a lot of business. Afterwards there will be a social, dancing, cake, etc. Once a month Father Kenneth will speak on FORESTRY FIELD DAY.

Annual forestry field day will be today at the Harrison County experiment station five miles east of Saucier on Rt. 67.

Pollypeers

October's bright blue weather continues just as bright and blue as advertised in the poem of the same name which I'm virtually certain many of our readers were forced to memorize in those long gone but not forgotten grammar school days. The air is truly as heady as golden wine and if it were not for autumn foliage dappling the landscape here and there and a slight chill in the after sundown breeze one might easily be lulled into imagining it's midsummer instead of exactly two months before Christmas Eve!

Waveland was strangely quiet over the weekend as shocked residents grieved over the sudden passing of one of its most beloved residents, Harry Lynch. Everyone knew him and I think the fact that I've never heard him called "Mr. Lynch" is indicative of the affection everyone felt for Harry, or Mr. Harry as he was known to the children and his colored friends. Despite the fact that he was in constant pain from crippling arthritis, he always managed a smile and took time to listen to the ailments and symptoms of all coming to him for prescriptions. He is deeply missed and will be sorely missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Thelma (Mrs. Charles) Dickson returned home Friday night after undergoing successful major in Touro Infirmary a couple of weeks ago. She's looking wonderful and one would never know she's even been sick a day in her life.

The parents visit

Just in case anyone wondered why we weren't in any of the usual haunts the past few days we'll explain that we had as guests Thursday through Monday, our fond parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom S. Lyons of Fernvale, Tenn., and one and only brother, (no sisters either), Sgt. Tom Lyons, Jr., who is on a 30-day leave from his AFS in Acoros, (except it's Acoros in Portuguese) Portugal. "Bud" as he is better known locally, was out to lovely Maria Silveira Alves of Praia Da Victoria, Acoros, Portugal on Sept. 3. This leave came up a bit too soon for her to apply for a divorce, but she'll visit Co. Cassin on his next leave in October '63.

Sympathy is extended to former resident, Bart Jones—his father, "Pop" who was at one time a patient in Gulfport Haven passed away in New Orleans Sunday. Funeral services took place at 11 a.m. Tuesday.

First great grandchild

The Henry Capdeponts are, for all we know, still celebrating the birth of their first great grandchild, who arrived in Vidalia, Alaska, Saturday, Oct. 19. Little Michael Scudder, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Scudder, weighed in at seven pounds, six ounces. The glad tidings were relayed here from San Antonio, Texas by the jubilant grandparents, S. Sgt. and Mrs. William Higgins. . . she's the former Elsie May Capdepont.

For great grandparents, "Pop" and Henry Capdepont certainly get around; they were accompanied by daughter Gladys (Mrs. Lomar) Bassett of Pascagoula when they attended Pearl River Junior College homecoming in Poplarville last weekend. . . they met daughter-in-law, Mrs. Henry Capdepont, Jr., of Piquette there.

Saturday night they tripped a light fantastic at the annual American Legion Harvest ball. Among those masting their royal majesties, King Leroy Luke, and Queen, Mrs. Chlois Dedeaux, were Yvonne and Eddie Virgilio, Uncle Bud Seiler, Lena Cuevas, James Rudolph, Rose and John Rutherford, Bobbie and Maxie Trelles, Mattie and D. W. North, Anne and Gilbert Gaynor, Marion and Russell Elliott, Mary Alice and Joe Benvenuti, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Craig, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ferguson, Shirley and C. J. Piazza and Beulah and Sidney Bourgeois.

Very happy to hear that Capt. "Hurricane" Clark was able to spend last weekend in his St. Joseph St. home. He was under the weather most of the summer, but apparently is feeling lots better now.

The Mac McCoys enjoyed a gay weekend in their Waveland summer home entertaining five guests from the Crescent City.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerstner were also weekenders—they dined at Haverty's Sunday.

Promoting international club

Despite the fact that we've been awaiting the arrival of one of those cute little shrunken heads so effectively done by natives in the wilds of South America tagged the late William Gaudet, Bill made it unharmed once again. . . he blew in from a trip to Guatemala, Costa Rica, etc., etc. Friday with his head intact. He reports arrangements for reciprocal country club use with Latin-American Clubs and Darwood International Country Club are well under way. The local club, scheduled to boast a fabulous clubhouse with dining facilities, two swimming pools, 18 hole golf course, tennis courts and other year-round recreational facilities is to be built at lovely Darwood on the Jourdan. Bill and Darwood owner, Keith Colby, left

Army Pvt. John H. Wyatt, Jr., 18, whose parents live in Picayune, was scheduled to complete advanced artillery training as a cannoneer at The Artillery and Missile Center, Ft. Sill, Okla., Oct. 19. Sunday night for Adams, Cal., and further work on the project. Craig Stewart and his lovely bride, Debbie of Madison, Wis., were weekend guests of his mother, Mrs. Mary Stewart, his grandmother, Mrs. Henry T. Vogelsberg and great-aunt, Mrs. Winn Hansen.

Henry Deville is on his way to becoming a member of the international set—he celebrated his birthday, Oct. 9, on the French Riviera. . . Just apparently was most impressed by his sojourn in Paris. . . on the liner returning to the States, Henry, dashing in his very French beret had a group of plumpish, vacationing school teachers completely convinced of his Parisienne sophistication by spouting Cajon patois until he asked in his normal drawl "Which part of Alabama do you girls come from?"—think he almost found out what it means to walk a gangplank!

First Lt. William C. Bethea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bethea, was released from military duty with the 101st Airborne Division last week. He has accepted a civilian position with an oil company in Baton Rouge.

Mrs. Maxine Tonkin is now making her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Rasmussen of Lakeshore. Frank Benina, a patient from Gulfport Veterans' Hospital who has been under Mrs. Rasmussen's care for the past five years, officially received his discharge from the service, has elected to remain in Lakeshore. . . he's busy fixing up his home in the Rasmussens' yard and will be a permanent resident of that area.

CORRECTION - We had all our facts about the Waveland Volunteer Fire Department's ball in order except the date—it will take place on Saturday, Nov. 9th.

A sharding match to benefit Little Sandy Green, who will require surgery on the shoulder injured when she was attacked by a dog, will take place at Chink and Ruth's Place Sunday at 2 p.m. The Greens had hospitalization, but extensive medical bills have exhausted this source of revenue, and funds are needed for the upcoming operation.

LAKE SHORE LOG

BY MRS. MALCOLM GREEN

Mr. and Mrs. Robert John (Bobby) Ladner have returned from a honeymoon in Florida. They were recently married in Our Lady Star of the Sea Church in New Orleans. Mrs. Ladner is the former Ann Calamari of New Orleans and the Calamari subdivision in Ansley. Bobby is the youngest of Ed Ladner of Ansley. Billy Bourgeois moved his home to Lakeshore from Bayou La Croix. Billy is a nephew, not a grandson of Mrs. George Powers as we recently erroneously stated.

Get well wishes to Miss Theresa Zengarling who is ill in her Bayou La Croix home.

Late but happy birthdays to Victor Green, III, Carlos Ladner and Lawrence Peterson.

No one was lovelier than Betty Smith who is a member of the String of Pearls, at the recent Pearl River Junior College homecoming. Betty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Jr., of Clermont attended.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mrs. Harry Lynch of Waveland, in the untimely death of Mr. Lynch.

Archie and Diane Courge and daughter came over from New Orleans last Sunday to spend the day.

Mrs. Mae Courge is back at home after a visit in New Orleans.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Strang who have moved into a lovely new home next door to where they formerly lived.

This Sunday at 2 p.m. Chink and Ruth La Fontaine will have a shooting match at their place on Lakeshore Road for our daughter, Sandy. All friends and family are invited.

Get well wishes to John Weathers who has been ill in the VA Hospital in New Orleans; also to Sam Sull of Ansley who is a patient at Hotel Dieu.

Lots of birthdays in the Fuch family these past weeks--Mrs. Vladimir Fuch, was 72 on Oct. 10--Jeanne Fuch, daughter of Blage and Jean was 3 on Oct. 17, and their son had a birthday the 19. On the 26th the twins of Norma and Kenny will be two. Best wishes to all.

It's clean up time again in the Lakeshore cemetery. Sand has already been delivered and if the old mosquitoes will have pity we hope to join our neighbors in this annual labor of love.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Ladner are comfortably settled in their new home in Bayside Park. Their daughter, Charlotte, had a very happy 2nd birthday Oct. 16.

Get well wishes go to Mrs. Viola Garcia who has been a patient in Hancock General; also to D. W. North (Mattie's husband) and Clarence Manuel who were in for check ups.

A very happy birthday to my mother-in-law, Mrs. Glover Green, who celebrated Oct. 18--Marion, her son was born on the same day and celebrated in Panama. This year he has a lot to be thankful for as he is at home and almost completely recovered from second degree burns of the body. Marion and his two sons Mike and Zan, will come state-side Dec. 19 for Christmas.

The Gulfview School Co-op club will sponsor the annual school Halloween party Halloween night. Mrs. August Usher has been quite busy on the phone trying to get room mothers lined up. The club will pay a substitute teacher for two days so principal Oren Seal can go to Jackson on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Wheelden are now living on Sycamore Street in Bay St. Louis. Gordon Garcia, Jr., bought the Wheelden home in Lakeshore for his growing family.

IN NURSING CHOIR

Lynn Rose, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Rose of Waveland, is a member of the choral club of Southern Baptist Hospital, one of the student musical groups performing at the Louisiana Baptist Student Union convention in New Orleans earlier this month.

Issues and morals

It may well be that Republican Candidates Rubel Phillips and Stanford Morse made a fair, sane impression on those who heard them here last Tuesday. Certainly Mr. Phillips is a good speaker and Mr. Morse no slouch in that department. In addition, they made some legitimate "your-ship-is-better" arguments. But the real issue, such as the embarking upon the "Hawkeye" apparently permanent leave of absence from the state in presidential and the gold medal in the 1964 Olympic Games. Mr. Phillips' hope to win the American prize, are more important points than Mr. Morse's. But the local audience is not the only one interested in the governor of Alabama, but the state of Mississippi as well.

Issues and debate

The Republican opponent wanted that better known opponent, Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson, refused to debate the issues with him. Whether this is true or not we don't know, but it makes sense that Lt. Gov. Johnson would not want to take on a candidate for the equal benefit of an opponent. But Mr. Phillips is merely complaining that he is not the only one interested in listening to him.

In addition, if the Democratic opportunist turned-Republican wanted to discuss issues when he was on the steps of Hancock County's courthouse, he was free to do so. Lt. Gov. Johnson didn't stop him. But mostly he wanted to talk about non-issues such as his profession that in next year's tug-of-war for the Republican nomination for president he would support Senator Barry Goldwater. While we're sure Sen. Goldwater would be delighted to know this and to some it puts Mr. Phillips in a better light than if he had said he would support Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, as an issue in this year's general election for governor of Mississippi it certainly ranks near the bottom.

Obligations

If Mr. Phillips were elected head of a club, we feel sure he would think it poor sportsmanship at best if those who supported his more conservative opponent resigned from the club because of his election. Yet that and more is what he is urging Democrats to do when he cries that they have no obligation to support their party's nominees on Nov. 5, for in addition to applicable state law, sec. 3129, Mississippi Code of 1942, reads in part: "No person shall be eligible to participate in any primary election unless he intends to support the nominations made in the primary in which he participates."

We can only assume that Mr. Phillips' own moral code is the same as that which he urges on others.

In Hancock County the dissident Democrats at least tried to run as independents. They didn't claim to be Republicans and try to ride the coattails of JFK's unpopularity.

body," Glover said. He cited correspondence with Senators John Stennis and James Eastland who have been equally unsuccessful in learning the government's attitude toward the Bay application although it is known the papers are in Washington.

A news release from the capital this week noted that office President Kennedy signed Congress' second accelerated public works appropriation of $450 million on May 17, only two such projects have been approved for Mississippi. Both went to the all-Negro community of Mount Bayou, one for $242,000 for water facilities, the other for $27,000 to help build a lagoon.

It is estimated more than 100 loan and grant requests from the state's communities have been filed up in government administrative offices for six months although statistics cited Mississippi as the most needy state in the union.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Louise Chadwick Lynch, seven daughters, Martha, Amy, Laurie, Harriet, Alice and Ellen Lynch, and one sister, Mrs. John F. Sumpt of Gretna, La.

Religious services were at St. Clare's Church with burial in St. Mary's Cemetery. Rite-mann's Fahey-Whitfield Funeral Home was in charge.

but soon warmed up to their job getting six points in the first quarter, 14 in the second, 13 in the third and 25 in the fourth. It's an old axiom that a good offense is the best defense and the Pirates were Hawk-meat from then on.

The game was only a few minutes old when Peterson uncorked a 25-yard touchdown pass to Wendell Ladner. In the second stanza Robert Hinks passed to Randall for 30 yards and another TD followed by another pass from Peterson to Wendell Ladner 53 yards and the third score.

In the third, Berlin Ladner scored on a 22-yard pass and Peterson stirred end for the fifth time.

In the fourth quarter Randall ran around the field like the proverbial cat that got rubbed with kerosene and scooted over the Pirates goal four times, accounting for 25 points.

"It was a rout," coach Lee said after the game. "Those kids could have gone on all night."

This Friday the rejuvenated Hawks celebrate homecoming enervating Eatonville and if the birds play anything like they did Friday it will be a happy homecoming.

Thieves broke into Mom's Cafe on U. S. 90, operated by Mrs. J. Warner, some time Tuesday night. Marquar reported, and stole a number of plates, groceries, silverware and an electric iron. The iron was pawned at Layne's Service Station, U. S. 90 for $3.75 in gasoline by six teen-agers, three boys and three girls in a late model cream colored car bearing an out of state license, an attendant said. An interstate pick-up was issued for the six by the sheriff's office.

Trial of four men accused of theft of about $11,700 in farm equipment and household goods from the A. C. Miller farm at Leetown was delayed until arrival of Heman Daniels, alias Randy Daniels, who was on his way yesterday from Smithfield, N. C., and Edward O. Daniels, who is in New Orleans on $10,000 bond, according to Gerald Price, Jr., chief deputy sheriff. Extradition proceedings are nearing completion, he said.

The other pair, Donald Ascolin and Irvin St. Pe, are being held here. All will appear before Boat 4 JP A. Frank Selph.

Con held the request was "not justified" since the redistricting question can only be considered by a three-judge panel.

Chamber votes group to plan 1964 program

Appointment of a committee to formulate a plan of action for 1964 was authorized by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce board of directors at its meeting Monday night. Members, to be appointed by Warren Carver, president, are to report at the next meeting.

Directors also considered a request from the area promotion committee that a full-time manager for the chamber be hired. Since the terms of several directors expire within the next month, the matter was tabled.

Carver, as chamber president, was designated as representative to the proposed regional planning committee to be established by Mississippi Test Operations officials for identifying qualified electors petition the supervisors for a vote on a plan for redistricting. The petition method setting out new seats and bounds had been attempted several years ago with no success.

Justice McElroy noted the complainants in this instance had not secured such a petition. Concurring in his opinion were Justices Perry Lee, Henry Lee and Rogers. Tom P. Brady and Robert Lee Jones.

The citizens' case was brought against the election commission and the other two members of that body acknowledged inequities in representation existed and the county should be reapportioned. The board of supervisors, before the chancery court hearing, went on record favoring redistricting "but not at this time". The question was raised again last month after the Democratic primaries and before the appeal hearing before the supreme court and it appeared action might be forthcoming. But after a week's study the matter was dropped.

In another redistricting case Monday U. S. District Judge Harold Cox refused to issue a temporary restraining order halting the Nov. 5 supervisors' election in Lauderdale County. However other aspects of that case will be considered by a three-judge panel under federal procedure. Two Meridian men sought the order to force more equitable representation for the beat in which their city is located.

Con held the request was "not justified" since the redistricting question can only be considered by a three-judge panel.

Legion gives U.S. flag to N. Central

Joseph Benvenuti, commander of Clement Bontemps Post 139 of the American Legion, presented two flags to Hancock North Central School Oct. 16 in imposing ceremonies.

Ann Lee, president of the Beta Club, in accepting the flag for the school recognized the contributions made by the Legion to students.

The ceremony opened with a musical number by the Hancock North Central band, directed by R. P. Vermilyea. Invocation was offered by Hugh Sanford, post chaplain. Benvenuti, presenting the flag to Miss Lee, gave its true meaning and the story and the story of its origin.

A salute was fired by Legionnaires D. W. North, Al Sammy, and John Wilkerson, while a color guard composed of H. R. Powell, J. W. Sells, Warren Buehler, Ed Virgilio, Fred Bankston and Edward Werling, stood by. As the flag was raised the band played the national anthem. Ann Lee led the assembled student body in the pledge of allegiance. Superintendent J. D. Penton, thanked the Legion for the flag and their interest in the school. Special thanks were accorded Fred Fayard who arranged the event.

ARE YOU BEING DUPED?

Is the "Republican" Candidate really a Republican?

OR is he an opportunist - more ambitious than sincere?

His background and beliefs:

"Republican" candidate Rubel Phillips in the spring of this year toured the State of Mississippi trying to get enough support to run as a Democrat for Governor of Mississippi; but was rejected.

Having been rejected by the Democrats, he, as third choice of the Republicans, became "anointed" as a Republican by Wirt Yergler, head of the Republican Party in Mississippi and waited to run in the general election against the Democratic nominee Paul B. Johnson (who was nominated by the people with the greatest majority ever given to a Mississippi candidate for Governor.)

"Republican" candidate Rubel Phillips served as circuit clerk of Alcorn County as a Democrat.

"Republican" candidate Phillips ran as a Democrat and was elected as a Democrat to the Public Service Commission of Mississippi. He served for a period and resigned to have one of his brothers appointed to serve (as a Democrat) in his place while he represented some of the major gas companies as a lawyer before his brother as a commissioner.

Is he a conservative?

Is "Republican" candidate Phillips a "G.O.P. conservative" or an "Adlai Stevenson liberal?"
This is how he feels about Mr. Kennedy's ultra liberal man Adlai Stevenson.
Quote Mr. Phillips: "Personally, I think Stevenson is the only hope for the South."

Social legislation

The social legislation proposed by the Kennedy Administration is designed to destroy this State and the South. What has been the position of the Republican Candidate for Governor with respect to social legislation?

Quote Mr. Phillips: "It is my view that those of us who are taking the moderate course in respect to all social legislation will be recognized ten years from now as having taken the only practical course for people who believe in progressive government."

THE BIG ANSWER

We know that Paul B. Johnson and Carroll Gartin are conservative Mississippi Democrats (the party not affiliated with the National Democratic Party) and they have proven to the people of Mississippi their stand.

Why take a chance on a "warmed over" "Stevenson liberal" Democrat who now parades as a Republican in liberal clothing to get your vote?

DON'T BE DUPED !!!

On Nov. 5th VOTE FOR

PAUL B. JOHNSON for Governor
CARROLL GARTIN for Lt.-Governor

Mrs. Ruth Ketchum is taking a round of medication which should have been in fine shape to undergo surgery in New Orleans around the end of the month.

The arrival of little Lucy, born at 7 p.m. Monday, Oct. 21, in Baptist Hospital gives Nancy and Luther a present count of three girls and one boy. The young lady turned her birthday to coincide with that of her great-aunt Stella Lee, 100, and big Luther, are proud paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gould of New Orleans mother.

Rev. Dale Evans, former pastor of Clement Harbor Methodist Church is to be the evangelist at a revival from Oct. 28 through Nov. 1, at Lakeshore Methodist Church.

Mystery

Who on earth made a phone call at 1:30 a.m. Sunday or was it Saturday? According to a pup dog that comes naturally—barking, of course. . . our comment, and it was not our dog, this time, is if one can sleep through the roar of drag racers, trains, and the like, the natural sound of a dog should sound like music.

Eddie Fayard's hand-made and personally designed fishing flies must be potent bait jangling by his catches of late.

Emily and Rene deMontuzin are enjoying their newly remodelled home—they really had no idea of completely redecorating, but it all began with new drapery, which just didn't match the furniture; the new furniture contrasted with the floors in the living room—consequently the living room floors showed up those in the hall, which when replaced made those in the bedrooms look in need of refinishing. . . sort of a vicious circle, but the shining result was well worth all of the trouble.

Welcome more newcomers—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clark and family moved into a home in Waveland Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stern were among those from this area attending the Tulane-State game in Jackson Saturday.

It was good to see Mrs. Lennox enjoying the weekend in her Beach Blvd. home for the first time in six months. . . she's been ill, but is looking and feeling wonderful once again.

Sick notes

Get well wishes are extended to Catherine Allison, an employee of Boering, who has been quite ill in a Crescent City hospital. Cathy, who returned from a European tour in late spring, apparently picked up one of those foreign bugs!

More get well wishes go to our old luncheon buddy, Mary Catherine (Mrs. Leo) Moran—Mary Catherine was hospitalized in Gulfport Memorial with a case of pneumonia, and almost no one knew that she was ill. . . so this greeting will take care of the card I would have sent had I known!

HARVEST BALL ROYALTY - Leroy Luke resigned as king and Mrs. Chlois Dadeaux as queen of the American Legion auxiliary sponsored Harvest Ball Saturday night. Maids in the court were Mesdames D. W. North, C. L. Hirsch, Henry Prevost, John Wilkerson and J. Tuit. Dukes were J. V. Lohmar, Buford Parker, D. W. North and John Sharp and Chlois Dadeaux. Door prizes went to Mrs. Russell Elliott and James Rudolph. Mrs. C. J. Piazza, auxiliary president, and Mrs. Ed Virgilio, dance chairman, reported proceeds of over $170 for the veterans' Yule gift shop. (Photo by Ed Fayard, Jr.)

Lorraine Kidd's grandmother, familiarly known as "Mamma Bear" came through surgery performed at Gulfport Memorial Monday in fine style.

Ann Langley should appear even more beautiful since attending a make-up show at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans last Wednesday.

Florence Foegele had as weekend guests Dr. and Mrs. Lewis Leggett of New Orleans. She entertained the Leggetts and Dot and Ben Merchant at a dinner party Saturday night.

Doris and Baldwin and the small Wildays and Doris' parents, Helen and Dan Sellen spent the weekend at their Central Avenue home.

Myrna and Bill Lundin, sons and large canine have moved into their brand new Grosvenor Place home.

Dog news

Our apologies to one of the more important members of the Hilsaire Ogden family, . . . Mairzy Doots, . . . their little black poodle is a he, not a she as we stated a couple of days ago!

Billy Henderson and his wife journeyed from Clarksdale to the Bay to weekend with Mrs. Wilma Keefe. Wavelanders will remember when Bill, his parents,

Dr. and Mrs. Henderson, Mary and Peter made their home here.

SIGHTS AND SOUNDS ALONG THE WAY

A flock of sheep, apparently led by a solitary black goat grazing contentedly, although somewhat dangerously along the railroad tracks; stately yellow candelabra plants displaying their wax-like blossoms in gardens all over town and the sound of school bands practicing for weekend football games.

Off to Pacific
Jerry J. Carver, storekeeper third class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Carver, of 104 Boudin Lane, Bay St. Louis, a crew member aboard the guided missile frigate USS Henry B. Wilson, left San Diego, Calif., Oct. 17, for the Seventh Fleet in the Western Pacific.

Teen Times

Nothing really too exciting occurred over the weekend, at least if it did we're uninformed—for dyed-in-the-wool football fans, though, it must have been just about perfect as local gridiron clashes began in Tiger stadium Wednesday night—the L'il Tigers met Gulfview winning by a score of 40 to 12. Thursday night, the Tiger varsity swamped St. Martin's 41-0 on the same field. Dimming the glee of the victorious Bay High squad was the fact that a St. Martin's player, Bill Seymour, cousin of Coach Wilmer Seymour, suffered a neck injury in the conflict and was taken to Gulfport Memorial Hospital.

Three games of interest here were played Friday night. In a home game St. Stanislaus scored twice but it wasn't quite enough as they bowed to Assumption of Napoleonville, La. 21-13. North Central, in the upset of the week, rolled over Pass High 58-7 and Lucedale bested Pearl River Central 12-7.

A large crowd from this area journeyed to Mobile where the University of Southern Mississippi played Florida State in Ladd Memorial Stadium Saturday night. Final tally 0-0. Participating in halftime entertainment were Karen Williams and Paula Crider, marching with the Pride of Mississippi band. Kay Dorich, a freshman at Ole Miss, visited Southern campus last weekend. . . she attended the homecoming celebration.

A very happy belated birthday wish goes to Ann Bryant—she observed her 19th Sunday, Oct. 16, and several birth dates to straighten out. . . Annette Monti cut her cake on Oct. 6 and Sara Segal on the 5th. . . thanks to another Teen Time reporter, Steve Wyatt who corrects these Stanislaus birth days—Bill DeLaune's was Oct. 10, not the 8th and Paul Weaver's the 9th instead of the 7th.

Another birthday greeting is sent to Peggy Monn who was 17 on Sunday.

Mollere Realty first place girl's softball team members will be presented jackets at their banquet next Saturday night at Haverly's restaurant.

Kenny Develle, a sophomore at PRJC, spends his weekends helping out at Looney's Service Stations.

Harry Shattuck is turning out some sharp sports stories for Millsaps College newspaper.

Quite a lot of interest in journalism around local schools these days. The Student Prints staff visited the Echo to observe how a newspaper is put together Tuesday and Cheryl Seuzeneau, Martha Lynch, Allison Trelles and Carolyn Zeigler were among a large group from St. Joseph Academy Sea Sprite workers dropped in our office Wednesday afternoon.

Gail Stewart was elected president of the pledge class of her sorority, Pi Beta Phi at Ole Miss.

Sincere congratulations and farewell to Teen Times Dale Bellier and Roy Asher, who were wed last Friday.

Sunday night will be an event to remember for Stanislaus students—some of those who'll be attending the homecoming dance are Michael Reinike and Ronnie Bufkin, Dale Battalora and Mike Heitzmann. (this foursome will be double-dating), Margaret Carmendella and Pete Manieri, Connie Demoran and C. J. Heitzmann, Margaret McDowell and Ozzie Blaize and Karen Bilbo and Mickey Waller. . . all of the above mentioned boys are sophomores, their dates, freshmen.

Lynne Hall, now in her senior year at Newcomb, spent the weekend with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Brockman.

Bob Hamilton has a rough scholastic schedule at Annapolis where he is in his second year. . . he has managed, however, to keep up with his sailing and is a member of one of the Naval Academy intramural teams.

Homecoming show next

Frenchmen overcome Rocks' early lead

St. Stanislaus Rockchaw got off to a 7-0 lead against the Frenchmen from Assumption High of Napoleonville, La., Friday night in the Stanislaus Stadium but were unable to hold back the Mustangs when they started rolling and lost 21-13.

Assumption took the lead in the second period, scoring twice and the Rocks came within a single point, scoring in the third but the Mustangs put the game in ice with a TD in the final quarter.

This weekend Stanislaus celebrates homecoming against Benjamin Franklin High School of New Orleans and Athletic Director Brother Dacian figures the Rocks will chalk up their No. 20 victory of the season.

Homecoming festivities start Friday night with a bonfire on the campus when the name of the

Shepard stars but Jones beat

Bidding for a chance at the football glory attained by his brother, Justin Smith, fullback Ulysses Shepard sparked Valena C. Jones' Tigers in a strong bid to overcome an 18-point half-time lead but had breaks continued to plague the lads and they lost 33-15 Friday to Ellsworth Keys High School of Ocean Springs in a home game.

Although only a sophomore, Shepard has been burning up yardage as only Smith, who holds the school's all-time record for total yardage, 1,182, could do. Smith, who was also a fullback, was all-conference in his senior year and his number has been retired.

The Tigers took a slim lead early in the game when a Keys quarterback was smothered in the end zone by Shepard and Clevon Williams but Keys came back to score three times and it was 20-2 at the half.

After a halftime pep talk by coach Willie Bradley the Tigers rallied when Robert Mullins took the kickoff and went 65 yards. Shepard scored from the five and later tallied again on a fine 45-yard run. It was his sixth TD of the year.

Also starring were co-captain Larry Haynes, ends Robert Whavers and Thomas Williams. Outstanding linemen were captain Clevon Williams, center Arthur Clementine, tackle Harold Price and line backer Martin Collins. This week the Jones boys have an open date.

The name O'Neal played an important role in Friday's game with coach Bob O'Neill directing.

Teddo Thomas in fast start as LSU frosh

LSU fans take note of Teddo Thomas, Jr.

Thomas, a Bay High graduate and freshman at Louisiana State, is playing end on the frosh squad handling the kickoffs, placements and snagging passes like a seasoned pro. He learned the game under one of the Coast's top mentors, Lance Lumpkin, having starred on the Tiger's championship team and later was selected for a five-year football scholarship at LSU.

The lad is 18 years old, weighs 190 pounds and is still growing. He will probably be redshirted next year, as is the custom at the Louisiana college, but barring accidents appears certain to make the varsity squad in his junior year. The redshirt squad is composed of sophomores who do nothing but study and practice football, in addition to their academic studies, and usually move up to the varsity in their third year of college.

Saturday a week ago the LSU freshmen battered a strong Memphis State frosh squad to submission 28-0 with Thomas' kicking and heads up all-around play having a lot to do with it.

Thomas is majoring in mathematics and physical education.

the plays for Benjamin Franklin and brothers John and James O'Neal each scoring a TD. James for the Rockchaws and John for the Frenchmen.

With the game only two minutes old, quarterback Curtis Matherne shot a 35-yard pass to end Dale Burke that was good for a touchdown. Matherne kicked the extra point and it was 7-0, Rockchaws.

In the second period a Mustang pass from quarterback Raymond Aucoin to end Joe Lucio was good for 48 yards and Gary Boudreaux hit pay dirt on a two-yard buck. On the following kickoff Assumption picked up a Rockchaw fumble and on the next play Aucoin passed 33 yards to Johnny O'Neal for the TD. O'Neal and Boudreaux scored the extra points on line plunges.

In the third period James O'Neal took an Assumption punt on his own eight and went all the way for a TD. The play was set up by a block by Russell Sanders.

The Mustangs salted away the game in the final period when Barry Carrier intercepted a Stanislaus pass on his own 20 and marched 80 yards for the TD. Aucoin went for the final three yards and Boudreaux got the extra point through the line.

Johnson kicks perfect

Bay High romps over St. Martin

Bay High's Tigers, determined to retain the Gulf Coast Conference championship, handed St. Martin's Yellow Jackets their worst defeat of the season Thursday night, 48-0, in Tiger Stadium.

The Tigers now have six wins and one tie with only two non-conference games remaining before the all-important Ocean Springs tilt Nov. 8 with Ocean Springs. Ocean Springs kept their undefeated record intact beating Harrison Central Saturday 19-0.

The Greyhounds are leading the conference with a 6-0 record and the Tigers are running second but the Tigs have played all their conference games except with Ocean Springs while Ocean Springs has two more to go against St. Martin and Pass Christian. Coach Lance Lumpkin boasts the conference's best record with four championships and one second in the five years of its existence. Last year the Tigers beat Ocean Springs 12-6 placements in a row to put the Tigers ahead 21-0 at the half.

Bay High continued to roll in the third period, Watts scoring his second TD of the evening on a 22-yard run. Johnson, kicking like a pro, made his fourth straight conversion from placement.

In the same quarter-quarterback Leroy Luke fired a 21-yard pass to Thomas who scampered over for his third TD. Again Johnson's kick was good.

It was the same story in the fourth quarter, the Tigers marching to the one-yard line from where Lonnie Schultz carried the pigskin over. Schultz again scored, this time from the 11 and Danny Krankey made the extra point bucking through the line.

St. Martin held the Tigers scoreless in the first quarter Thursday but they started roaring in the second scoring three touchdowns. They got two more in the third and added insult to injury with two in the fourth.

A 30-yard pass from Penton to end Billy Thomas started the fireworks. Larry Johnson booted the extra point. Then Dick Watts coasted over after eluding the enemy for 81 yards and again Johnson's kick was good. Another Penton to Thomas pass was good and Johnson made it three
